In Standard Dress the lady's or girl's dress must have a long skirt which at minimum covers both her knees; if the skirt is split it must not be split higher than the knee.

In Latin Dress the lady's or girl's dress must have a skirt made of fabric, fringe, feathers, beads or any other suitable material, and can be split or open on the sides, provided always that the skirt must completely cover the panties in front and in the back when standing still.

For specific rules for Juvenile girls see Appendix 2: Juvenile Female Dress.

Explanation: If we read appendix 2 for Juveniles I and II female dress, there is possibility to have shorter dress. So the general rule should refer to specific Juvenile rules.

If transparent (see through) materials are used, they must be lined with a non-transparent material in the same colour. Sleeves may be transparent. Draping and pleating is allowed. Buttons in the colour of the dress and fabric covered buttons are allowed if they are used to button the dress, not as a decoration.

Small tearshaped opening on the back closed at the neck with a button or hook may be used, not longer than 15 cm and not wider than 5 cm.

The two new skirt designs (inserts and godets) - the volume of the skirt must not exceed 2 full circles - 4 half circle inserts or up to 8 quarter circle inserts.

Explanation: Proposed regulations are necessary in order to clearly specify the technical design of closing dresses. New skirt designs earlier adopted by WDSF didn't specified max volume of skirt, therefore it should be defined.
